Man Sought on Tourists
WASHINGTON, Oct. 11 (AP) — The United States Embassy in Moscow is pressing the Soviet Foreign Ministry for information on two American tourists missing in the USSR since August. The State Department said today.

Francis W. Tully Jr., a press officer, reported that no word had been received on what had happened to Harvey C. Bennett of Bath, Maine, and Mark I. Kaminsky of Edwardsburg, Mich.

A few days ago the State Department reported that another American had seen Mr. Kaminsky briefly in the town of Uzhgorod in August. Mr. Kaminsky was reported to have said that he was being detained by Soviet authorities for having taken photographs.
